

Call for Proposals IRAQ

Call Opens:	1 st May 2024
Deadline for Submissions:	31 st May 2024
Send Application package to:	WPHFapplications@unwomen.org

1. Objectives and Purpose of the Call for Proposals

The overall purpose of this call for proposals is to provide grants to local civil society organizations in Iraq focused on (i) increased meaningful participation and decision-making of women in conflict prevention processes, and (ii) enhanced participation and leadership of women in humanitarian crisis planning and response with local women and young women's rights organizations. The call for proposals specifically contributes to WPHF's overall goal of contributing to peaceful and equal societies.

Initiatives should aim to reach those women and girls experiencing multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination, such as those excluded due to geography, ethnicity, disability, age, migratory status, among others and which is in alignment with the 2030 Agenda and the principle of leaving no one behind.

2. Country Context Linked to Call for Proposals

Iraq continues to navigate significant challenges related to women's empowerment. The post-conflict phase has seen the return of over 4.8 million people to their homes, and the number of individuals requiring assistance has notably decreased. This transition from immediate aid to sustainable development initiatives can be attributed to the collaborative efforts between the Iraqi government and international partners, including the United Nations. The Iraqi government's commitment is reflected in its dedication to resolving issues, aligned with the UN Sustainable Development Cooperation framework. These efforts highlight Iraq's ongoing resilience and its journey towards stability and recovery, while Iraqi women have demonstrated remarkable resilience and agency, actively confronting the challenges they face.

In support of these efforts, the Iraqi government has also launched the National Action Plan for the Implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 (INAP II) and the National Women's Strategy. INAP II is designed to enhance the role of women in Iraq across various sectors, promoting their participation in peacebuilding and security processes. The National Women's Strategy further outlines a comprehensive approach to improving the socio-economic status of women, advocating for justice between men and women, and ensuring greater representation of women in decision-making roles at all levels. These strategic frameworks not only bolster the position of women in Iraqi society but also affirm the government's commitment to creating a more inclusive and equitable environment for all its citizens.

3. Scope (Location and Duration)

The WPHF will fund qualifying projects in Iraq with a geographical focus in: North, Central and South of Iraq, aiming at an equitable distribution for the three regions, based on needs and vulnerabilities on the ground.

Multi-country projects, or projects outside the geographical focus will NOT be accepted.

CSOs can apply for a project duration of maximum 2 years (24 months) in the following areas:

- ✓ WPHF Impact Area 2 (Conflict Prevention)
- ✓ WPHF Impact Area 3 (Crisis Planning)

Note: Each applicant's proposal must align with the National Strategy for Women 2023-2030, and articulate how the proposal will contribute to its objectives. In addition, proposals will be appraised based on their alignment with the United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework.

4. Eligibility

4.1. Who can apply and receive funding?

National, regional or local/grassroots women or young women led, women's rights, youth rights, feminist, or civil society organizations with a proven track record working with women, young women and girls, are eligible to apply. Organizations who are led by women who face multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination are encouraged to apply, including disabilities, ethnic minorities, etc.

Women's Rights or Feminist Organization: The organization's must have justice between men and women and women's rights at the core of their official mission/vision statement. The organization's experience should clearly reflect addressing multiple/intersecting forms of discrimination and advancing justice between men and women and women's rights and aim to address the underlying drivers/systems/structures, including patriarchy and dynamics, and work to transform these.

Women-Led Organization: must be headed by a woman as director/head of organization.

Youth Focused Organization: To be considered "youth focused", the organization's core mission/vision must focus on supporting the social, economic and political participation of young women and young men and addressing multiple/ intersecting forms of discrimination against young women and men. WPHF will provide specific attention to youth focused organizations supporting young women, advancing justice between men and women and peacebuilding.

Young Women Led Organization: must be headed by a young person aged between 18 and 29 years old who serves as director/head of organization.

The following are NOT eligible to apply for a grant from the WPHF:

- International non-governmental organizations;
- Government agencies or institutions;
- UN agencies or UN Country Teams;
- Private individuals;
- Private sector entities;
- Universities, Think Tanks or Education or Research Institutions

4.2. Do we need to be legally registered as an organization in our country to apply?

YES, for the lead applicant. The lead applicant organization must have legal status with the competent national authority in the eligible country of project implementation and must submit proof of legal registration with the application package. Note that articles of incorporation are not proof of legal status.

NO for co-implementing or consortium partners. Co-implementing partners are not required to provide legal registration, only the lead applicant organization.

4.3. Can we apply in partnership or consortium with other organizations?

YES. Joint projects with other local women’s rights, youth-focused, or women or young women-led civil society organizations are encouraged. Joint projects in partnership with other local women’s rights, young women-led, and civil society organizations which are led by marginalized groups including those who are living with disabilities, indigenous, etc., are also encouraged.

For joint projects, only the lead organization is required to meet the eligibility criteria. For joint projects, the roles and responsibilities of each organization must be clearly detailed within the application template.

4.4. May we apply for funding for an ongoing or existing initiative or project?

YES. The WPHF accepts proposals for ongoing projects funded by other donors. However, the specific value added of the contribution should be clearly outlined.

4.5. Does my organization have to contribute to the project budget?

NO. Civil society organizations are not required to contribute to the budget.

5. Type of Funding Available

Under this call for proposals, WPHF is accepting applications for both institutional/core funding and programmatic funding. An organization (lead applicant or co-implementing partners) can submit one application for institutional funding, AND/OR one application for programmatic funding. Organizations who apply for both institutional and programmatic funding need to submit two separate applications packages based on the related templates of each stream as noted in Section 6.

Institutional Funding: (USD $2,500 - $30,000) Aims to reinforce the institutional capacity of women’s rights/led organizations working on women’s specific issues in peace and security and humanitarian contexts, to ensure they are able to sustain themselves and to improve their impact. Prospective applicants will need to demonstrate how the current context affects their institutional and financial capacities and how the funding would support them as an organization.	AND/ OR	Programmatic Funding (USD $30,000 - $200,000) This funding stream will finance projects which aim specifically to fund programmatic activities aligned with the following impact area(s):
It will finance a limited range of activities to support the development or strengthening of a CSO’s institutional capacity. The purpose of this funding stream IS NOT to finance programmatic activities. Organizations who apply for institutional funding, should have a mandate aligned to the objectives of the call for proposal.		<input type="checkbox"/> WPHF Impact Area 2: Increased meaningful participation and decision-making of women in conflict prevention processes and response OR <input type="checkbox"/> WPHF Impact Area 3: Enhanced participation and leadership of women in humanitarian crisis planning and response

9. Next Steps After Submission of Proposals to WPHF

After the closure of the call for proposals, the following will take place:

- ▶ Submitted proposals which are complete and received within the timeline will be screened for compliance based on the requirements of this call for proposals (longlisting)
- ▶ Longlisted proposals will undergo a technical evaluation by WPHF based on the evaluation criteria listed in Section 8 above. Those which score over 50/100 will be shortlisted.
- ▶ A Regional/National Steering Committee (R/NSC) will convene to review the shortlisted proposals and will select proposals based on the available funding. The NSC may also make recommendations on the revision of budgets of proposals.
- ▶ Only selected CSOs for funding will be contacted directly by email by the UN country Management Entity of the WPHF (UN Women or UNFPA).
- ▶ Please note that this process can take up to 4-5 months after the closure of the call for proposals.
- ▶ We encourage you to visit <https://wphfund.org/calls-for-proposals/> for future funding opportunities.

About the Women's Peace and Humanitarian Fund (WPHF)

The WPHF is a global pooled funding mechanism which aims to stimulate a significant increase in financing for women's participation, leadership, and empowerment in peace and security processes and humanitarian response. The WPHF is a flexible and rapid financing mechanism. It supports quality interventions designed to enhance the capacity of local women to prevent conflict, respond to crises and emergencies, and seize key peacebuilding opportunities. The overall goal of the WPHF's theory of change is to contribute to peaceful and equal societies. Achievement of this goal will require that women are empowered to participate in, contribute to, and benefit from conflict prevention, crisis response, peacebuilding, and recovery. Since its launch in 2016, WPHF has been supporting over 1,200 civil society organizations and is present in 44 countries.

The WPHF is governed by a Funding Board at the global level, which is comprised of four UN entities (currently UN Women, UNHCR, UNFPA and PBSO), four donor Member States (currently Austria, United Kingdom, Germany, and the United States), as well as 4 Civil Society Organizations (currently Feminist Humanitarian Network, Kvinna till Kvinna, She's the First and Reach out Cameroon).

At the country level, the final selection of shortlisted proposals will be undertaken by a National Steering Committee, which is comprised of UN agencies, civil society organizations, donor representatives and governments.
